

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

JAYNE ORBER and MARC
ORBER, husband and wife, individually,

Plaintiffs,

v.

RAJESH K. JAIN, M.D.,
RECONSTRUCTIVE ORTHOPEDICS,
PA,

Defendants.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 1:10-CV-1674-RMB-JS

JURY VERDICT SHEET

1. Did Defendant Dr. Rajesh K. Jain, M.D. (and, therefore, Defendant Reconstructive Orthopedics, PA) deviate from accepted standards of medical practice during the June 2, 2009 knee replacement surgery?

Yes _____ No X

If you have answered "yes" to Question #1, proceed to Question #2.

If you have answered "no" to Question #1, please stop your deliberations and return your verdict.

2. Was Defendant Dr. Rajesh K. Jain's deviation a proximate cause of plaintiff's injuries?

Yes _____ No _____

If you have answered "yes" to Question #2, proceed to Question #3.

If you have answered "no" to Question #2, please stop your deliberations and return your verdict.

3. What sum of money will fairly and reasonably compensate Plaintiff Jayne Orber for damages she sustained as a proximate result of Dr. Rajesh K. Jain's negligence?

A. Pain, Suffering, Disability, Impairment and Loss of Enjoyment of Life? $ _____

B. Past Lost Wages? $ _____

C. Future Lost Wages? $ _____

TOTAL: $ _____

4. What sum of money will fairly and reasonably compensate Plaintiff Marc Orber for the loss of his spouse's services, society and consortium that he sustained as a proximate result of the incident?

$ _____

5. Did Plaintiff Jayne Orber fail to act reasonably to avoid or alleviate harm following the surgery, thereby causing some or all of the injuries she ultimately suffered?

Yes. _____

No. _____

If you answered "yes" to Question #5, proceed to Question #6.

If you answered "no" to Question #5, please stop your deliberations and return your verdict.

6. What percentage of Plaintiff Jayne Orber's ultimate harm occurred because of her failure to act reasonably? _____%

Please stop.

WHEN YOU REACH THE POINT WHERE YOU ARE INSTRUCTED TO STOP, PLEASE INFORM THE UNITED STATES MARSHAL THAT YOU HAVE COMPLETED YOUR DELIBERATIONS.

3 May 12
DATE